The School - The school will strive to:-

- Care for the child's safety and happiness and inform parents of any concerns or problems which affect the child's work or behaviour;
- Implement all policies for the delivery of the highest quality teaching;
- Provide a broad and balanced curriculum which meets the need of the individual;
- Set high standards of behaviour and ensure that the children receive fair treatment at all times;
- Encourage children to develop responsibility and to take care of others;

Work together with parents/carers by:-

- Informing them of their child's progress through an annual written report;
- Providing regular updates and through parents evenings;
- Ensuring that parents understand how they can support the school in its work;
- Informing parents /carers about school activities through regular emails and notices regarding events;
- Offering opportunities for parents to be involved in the life of the school.

Together we shall:-

- Support the child's learning to help them to achieve their best through cooperation, dedication and mutual respect;
- Endeavour to give appropriate help and support for any special educational or medical needs;
- Encourage the children to keep to the school's rules and to care for their environment;
- Promote Christian values throughout all aspects of school life.

Parents/Carers -I/We shall try to:

- Make sure that the child attends school regularly and provide a prompt written or verbal explanation for any absence;
- Ensure that holidays are not taken within school time as we have 13 weeks of holidays;
- Ensure that the child arrives at school in time for registration at 8:55am and is collected promptly at 3.15;
- Ensure that the child wears correct school uniform, or PE kit when specified, in school every day;
- Let the school know about any concerns or problems that might affect the child's work or behaviour;
- Support the school's policies and guidelines for behaviour management. Including the need to use the school day to ensure tasks are completed satisfactorily;
- Support the child with homework and, if possible, hear them read every day or read to them;
- Attend parents' evenings and discussions about the child's progress;
- Where possible, attend concerts, services and celebrations when the child is involved;
- Learn about the school through open sessions, activities and functions.

I understand that I am allowed on the school premises and site by licence of the Headteacher and that I am aware that any anti-social or unhelpful behaviour may cause this licence to be revoked.
